POOL KIOSK PROJECT

The demolition works on the old pool kiosk are nearing completion. We captured a photo of Des O'Rafferty in front of the old building as this was one of his first projects he was involved in upon arriving in Westonia. (he didn't chain himself to the building!!!)

Famlonga Builders will be onsite next week to commence the construction works for the new facility which will be a far more modern version of the 55 year old brown brick buildings and will complement the impressive looking Wanderers Stadium.

Below is an artists impression of the new building.

We are after some photos of Burracoppin and the surrounding area prior to 1969. the purpose of this is to eventually put together a picture book. When looking online, the only old pictures of the town are of the pub.

This project is non-profit and I will make copies available to those wanting them. I simply want to capture some history of Burracoppin before it's all lost...
