WESTONIA GOLF CLUB

Nett winner of the Westonia Ladies Day held on 30th August was Karen Day with Runner up being Stacey Geier. Lani Hale took out the winner for the gross score on 28 with Heather Lockyer on 26 taking out the gross runner up position.

A Club Day was held on 31st August and with the ladies recovering from their big day on the 30th, there was six men only who turned up to play. Winner of the day was Uncle Joe with 45 and runner up on 37 was Damo.

Best dressed on the day was awarded to Kila Della Bosca. Longest T flick went to Stacey Geier. Longest putt went to Ainslie, Best 3rd to Karen Day, Nearest to the pin Joc Antonio and the longest drive on 18 went to Lani Hale. Ainslie again took out the Next Years Winner consolation prize.

Club day again on the 7th September saw another dedicated field of 7 golfers play. Winner of the day was Steve Hale on 33 with Rohan Day runner up on 32. Sunday the 14th saw 40 -50 knot winds welcome the players. Four brave men battled the elements and played the 18 holes of golf. Well done to the survivors Steve, Pete, Joe and Joel. The three wise women, Joc, Lani and Ainslie called it a day after nine holes and retired to the Club House to play a few games of Euchre. Definitely don't mind being called fair weather golfers with those conditions.

WESTONIA BOWLING CLUB

Fixtures are now out for the 2025-2026 Bowling Season. Fixture Books can be picked up at the Westonia Wanderers Stadium. The official commencement of the season will be on Sunday October 5th with the Lockyer/Faithfull Opening Day.

Whilst it has been the golfing season over the winter the Bowling Club has been running scroungers on Saturday afternoons. The last few weeks have seen Greg Tapp, Damo Geier, Bill Price and Helen Barnett join the winning player list and earn themselves a handicap going into future games.

The Half way to Kalgoorlie competition was run on September 10th after a hiatus of a few years. The day ran smoothly with a complete field of 12 teams. Once again the catering skills of Ada and her volunteers proved that no one does it better than Westonia. Well done to Bill, Heather, Drake and Brad for their organisational skills behind the bar and the running of the event. Also a big thankyou to Arthur, Phil, Greg, Fred and Pete for their culinary skills on the BBQ and the hot chips. Congratulations to all winners who have all booked in again for next year.

The Four amigos of Kay Geier, Marie Johnston, Margie Crees and Ainslie travelled to Kalgoorlie on the 1st to the 5th September to compete in the Kalgoorlie Ladies Carnival with Drake, Bill, Fred and his brother Ron playing in the Men's Carnival in Kalgoorlie on the 12th – 14th September. No big prizes but also no disgraces either. Great to catch up with friends and meet new ones.
